When Curb Records recording artist Lee Brice isn't selling out arenas, writing and recording songs, or building new brands like Dulce Vida Tequila and Loud Lemon, you'll find the family man with his wife Sara, two young boys, and daughter. Meanwhile, with over 3.7 billion on-demand streams and over 4 billion spins on Pandora, Brice continues to enjoy massive success at country radio, digital streaming services, and on the road. He has reached the #1 spot at Country Radio with Platinum-selling "Memory I Don't Mess With," which consecutively follows three prior #1s: ASCAP's 2021 Country Song of the Year and 3x Platinum track "One of Them Girls," "I Hope You're Happy Now" with Carly Pearce, and the 4x Platinum hit "Rumor," which was nominated in the category Single of The Year at the 55th Annual ACM Awards. One of the most played country artists of all time on Pandora, he was the second country artist behind Keith Urban to receive the Pandora Billionaire plaque. Lee is also a GRAMMY nominee, a CMA and ACM award winner, and he's taken nine radio singles to Number One: "A Woman Like You," "Hard to Love," "I Drive Your Truck," "I Don't Dance," "Drinking Class," "Rumor," "I Hope You're Happy Now," "One of Them Girls," and "Memory I Don't Mess With."

Garth Brooks, Jason Aldean, Kenny Chesney and others have recorded his songs, and he's performed on numerous TV shows, including NBC's Today, ABC's The Bachelor, NBC's The Voice and FOX's Miss USA 2018. Lee performed as part of the Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song honoring Garth Brooks, aired on PBS March of 2020. At the 54th Annual CMA Awards, Lee took home the prize for Musical Event of the Year for his song with Carly Pearce, "I Hope You're Happy Now." At the 56th ACM Awards, "I Hope You're Happy Now" won Single of the Year and Music Event of the Year, and Lee and Carly Pearce performed the song live. Lee's album, Hey World, has been certified as Platinum and features several multi-Platinum selling hits. Lee kicked off 2024 with an intimate acoustic tour, the Me & My Guitar Tour, and this spring he released his latest radio single, "Drinkin' Buddies" with Nate Smith and Hailey Whitters. The single was followed by the nostalgic summertime track, "Summer of Us." In 2025, Brice announced the return of his acoustic tour, the You, Me & My Guitar Tour and released his latest single, "Cry," available now.

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US

We are ensuring you have access to the best entertainment in North Central PA and appreciate your support in keeping us going!

As a non-profit organization, we rely on the community's support to preserve and operate this historic space. You can play a part in that by:

- ♦ Supporting us with your Membership
- \diamond Becoming a donor with a one-time gift
- Encouraging your company to become a Corporate Sponsor

For more information, contact Ana Gonzalez-White, College Relations Officer for Community Arts Center Development at 570.327.7657 or email awhite@caclive.com.

OUR VOLUNTEERS SERVE AS "GOOD WILL AMBASSADORS"

for our theater and are a vital and necessary part of the experience that every patron has when they attend an event at the CAC. The high level of service that the volunteer staff provides to our patrons ensures a favorable and lasting impression, while guaranteeing their comfort and safety while attending events. Volunteers serve many functions at the CAC such as greeting and directing patrons upon their arrival at the theater, ticketing, ushering, assisting guests with special needs and being of service to all patrons with questions or concerns. Thank you to The Volunteer Corps for their generous donation of $3,000 to the volunteer supply fund and their continued support of the Community Arts Center and its mission!

EDUCATIONAL SERIES COALITION

Each year, regional schools partner with the Community Arts Center to provide thousands of students the opportunity to experience live professional performances.

These hand-picked programs line up with the curriculum being taught in the classroom and provide students with opportunities they may not have access to otherwise.

By collaborating with schools in our region, the Community Arts Center provides these children with fun scholastic outings that expand learning beyond the classroom. Educational programs are funded in part by:

Thank you to our media partners:

The Community Arts Center partners with local arts organizations including the following:

TODAY, 31 YEARS LATER, our theater's spirit remains as effervescent as ever. Almost 2 million guests have passed through our doors since that spectacular reopening in 1993, and millions more will follow. Our stage has been graced by a diverse group of performances, including ZZ Top, Bert Kreischer, Mercy Me, Josh Turner, Cheap Trick, Jason Isbell and the 400 Unit, Aretha Franklin, Dancing with the Stars, "The Book of Mormon," Buddy Guy, "Waitress," Weird Al Yankovic, Willie Nelson, Jerry Seinfeld, Bonnie Raitt, and Ringo Starr—almost 1,500 productions since opening.

As the largest cultural institution in the county, we are also a community resource and the performance home for many local organizations, including the Uptown Music Collective, the Williamsport Symphony Orchestra, and others. We like to say that all the big events in Williamsport happen at the Community Arts Center, but it's more than that. We truly are a place where the arts and community intersect. As she did in 1928, the rechristened Capitol Theatre dazzles the eye and draws the community to her, just as she has been doing for almost 100 years.

MISSION STATEMENT

- Enhance the quality of life for the community by providing exceptional arts and entertainment events and participatory activities;
- Offer programming that is appropriate to the diverse interests and needs of our regional audience and priced fairly to assure accessibility to all;
- Provide complete and courteous service and maintain a warm and welcoming environment for all of our guests.

THE CAPITOL LOUNGE

is almost as busy as the Martin Theatre and serves two purposes. First, it's a good place to start any visit to the Community Arts Center. So come early, meet your friends, and enjoy a drink. Located on the second floor, the Capitol Lounge opens one hour before every show, remains open during intermission (if there is one), and stays open one hour after every show. The Lounge is accessible from the Mezzanine or via the lobby elevator (2R). There is a full bar, a large screen TV where you can watch the performance, and an outside deck with a firepit. It's a great place to begin or end your visit to 220 West 4th Street.

The Capitol Lounge is also a performance venue. Tunes on Tap features local musicians in concert while we feature local breweries. Murder Mystery Dinners let you help solve crimes with your friends, and the Comedy Zone brings sidesplitting hilarity to the Lounge.

Thank you to our Capitol Lounge Sponsors: Members' Night:

With a $250 gift to the Community Arts Center, you can enjoy Membership privileges in the Capitol Lounge. Scan the QR Code to donate now.
