THE DECADE OF GRUNGE

Dear Friends,

We are glad that all of you chose to join us tonight for The Decade of Grunge. The Uptown Music Collective is very excited to bring this powerful, energetic performance to the stage.

Flashback to the 90s – a time when grunge and alternative rock were not just music genres but anthems of a generation. Bands like Nirvana, Pearl Jam, Alice in Chains, and the raw power of Alanis Morissette and Hole shook the world with their unapologetic spirit and groundbreaking sounds. Tonight, we're dialing up that raw, edgy vibe that defined an era and continues to fuel the fire of artists and fans alike.

Our young musicians were pumped about this show when it was first announced and quickly had this music together and were performing it at a high level. Show directors Connor Evans, Calistra Mahoney, and Isabel Butters are steering the ship. Their dedication and creativity have been the driving force behind this epic throwback, supported by the rock-solid SPG1 Leadership team, who've been the wizards behind the curtain, crafting every element of this night.

Tonight is also our yearly performance fundraiser, including a pass-the-hat moment just before intermission. Although every show supports the UMC's educational programs, portions of tonight's performance also support the school's robust scholarship and financial aid program that ensures that every deserving student can participate in our educational programs. Please give if you can.

Remember, your presence tonight isn't just about filling seats; it's about fueling the passion that drives these young musicians. It's about being part of a movement that celebrates the enduring power of music education. We're psyched for you to dive into this time warp with us, to feel the pulse of the 90s, and maybe, just maybe, to rediscover a part of your musical soul. Your support is the lifeblood of these shows and adds fuel to the dreams of each of our student performers.

Enjoy the show!

Sincerely,

Dave Brumbaugh – Founder/Executive Director, Uptown Music Collective

Barron's bases its ratings on qualitative criteria: professionals with a minimum of seven years of financial services experience, acceptable compliance records, formal succession plans, high client retention, and more. Financial Advisors are quantitatively rated based on varying types of revenues and assets advised by the financial professional, with weightings associated for each. Because individual client portfolio performance varies and is typically unaudited, this rating focuses on customer satisfaction and quality of advice. The rating may not be representative of any one client's experience because it reflects a sample of all of the experiences of the Financial Advisor's clients. The rating is not indicative of the Financial Advisor's past or future performance. Barron's is a registered trademark of Dow Jones & Company, L.P. All rights reserved. Forbes Best-in-State Wealth Advisors (January, 2020; February, 2021; April, 2022; April, 2023) and America's Top Women Advisors (February, 2022; February, 2023) rankings were developed by SHOOK Research and is based on in-person, virtual, and telephone due diligence meetings to measure best practices, client retention, industry experience, credentials, review of compliance records, firm nominations; and quantitative criteria, such as: assets under management and revenue generated for their firms. Investment performance is not a criterion because client objectives and risk tolerances vary, and advisors rarely have audited performance reports. SHOOK's research and rankings provide opinions intended to help investors choose the right financial advisor and are not indicative of future performance or representative of any one client's experience.
